Christ is Risen—He is Risen Indeed

Do you think it could have blown any harder than it did on Easter morning? In spite of the wind, the glorious service proceeded as scheduled with 209 people attending our first Easter in our new location. After the service, with the wind gusting at 40 mph, our children searched for eggs on the dirt, and eggs and baskets flew everywhere. It was quite a day!

Our Choir Returns

When our parish profile was created, parishioners were asked what about Epiphany inspired them, or felt particularly spiritual to them. Many responded that it was the music, and specifically mentioned our choir. We were all disappointed when the choir disbanded last year.

We are very excited that the choir is now back in business! All of the former members are back, plus we've added some new members. A most wonderful addition to our parish is our new music director and choir leader, Kathy Steinbrenner, and her husband, Peter. Both are members of The Las Vegas Master Singers, a semi-professional and prestigious choral group here in the valley. In addition, both Kathy and Peter sang in the choir at Christ Church Episcopal. Kathy also comes to us with a background in choral directing, having led the choir at St. Paul's Episcopal Church in Evanston, Wyoming, and has also had 20 years of experience as a substitute teacher, with an emphasis in music. Christ Church's loss is most definitely Epiphany's gain! In talking with Kathy and Peter after the service last Sunday, they mentioned to several of us that a parishioner at Christ Church said that, although they would be sorely missed, she believed that they were being called to serve at Epiphany, and we are blessed that they answered that call!

Another new member, both to our church family and to our choir, is Kelly Morgan, who was confirmed last week. Welcome Kelly.

Returning members are:

Shirley Geraci, Ginny Guzman-Walsh, Libby Hausrath, Nancy Perlotto, Sue Racicot, Nydia Segal, Helene Spaulding, Carol Wagers and Kathleen Matrange. Now that Peter has formally broken the "gender barrier" in our choir, which inadvertently made our past group an all-women's choir, we are fervently hoping that more of our wonderful male singers will step up and join us! It will be exciting to expand our repertoire with even more beautiful music...

Through the Lens: A Presiding Bishop's Ministry

Through the Lens captures a panorama of The Episcopal Church and the ministry of Presiding Bishop Katharine Jefferts Schori. Photographer and spouse Richard Schori uses the camera to let pictures speak a thousand words, chronicling meetings with heads of state and afternoons of teaching children about scripture, providing a snapshot into trips around the world and visits with congregations big and small.
